SO DISSEMINATION NUMBERED

1. A regular Jordanian source learned from two Palestinian adherents of Hajj Amin al-Husayni, ex-Grand Mufti of Jerusalem, that the attack on the USIS center in Damascus on 26 March 1952 was the first of a series of attacks which are planned against British and United States' missions and property in the Arab States.
2. Another Mufti supporter stated that Palestinian Arabs and Communists in various Arab capitals were working together as common enemies of British and Americans. Such collaboration is advantageous as the Communists are prepared to help financially.
3. A well-placed Egyptian official who enjoys the confidence of King Faruq reported that Egyptian Prime Minister Hilali Pasha has lost hope of reaching an agreement with Britain without American intervention. Source states that Hilali is relying on the strong pressure which, despite denials, he believes that Acheson will exert on the British.
4. An Egyptian journalist with excellent contacts in various Government departments reported that King Faruq has impressed upon Hilali Pasha the vital importance which the former attaches to the success of Egyptian talks with the Sudanese al-Mahdi delegation. If the Sudanese are willing to accept unity under a common crown, they are to be assured self-government of any type they choose and abolition of the Wafid Party decrees of November 1951 laying down a constitution for the Sudan.
5. An established source reported that former Tunisian Minister of Justice Salah Bin Yussef in an interview on 7 May 1952 with Egyptian Prime Minister Hilali Pasha, obtained the promise of Egypt's full support of Tunisia in her dispute with France.
